Subject : Animal Health Leadership Awards 2022 - Extension Leadership Award

Distinguished Dr Kelawala,

Greetings from Indian Chamber of Food and Agriculture !

We feel pleased in sharing that the eminent JURY panel of Animal Health Leadership Awards 2022, instituted by Indian Chamber of Food and Agriculture, has decided to present the Extension Leadership Award 2022 to Kamdhenu University, Gandhinagar for exemplary contribution to the growth and development of Animal Health in India.

ICFA & Agriculture Today have always been on the forefront in bridging the gaps, influencing policies, creating business networks and recognizing achievers. To extend due recognition to the role models and pioneers of Animal Health, we are proudly hosting Animal Health Leadership Awards 2022 on Thursday, 7th July, 7:00 PM, at AP Shinde Auditorium, NASC Complex, PUSA, New Delhi.

Sir, your receiving the award in person will be a matter of great honour for ICFA. We also feel delighted in extending an invitation to join India Animal Health Summit 2022 on 6th & 7th July 2022.

You are kindly requested to advise your office to send a short write-up (200 words), for the citation, positively by 4:00 PM, Saturday 2nd July 2022. My colleague Ms Vinita Singh (+91 7290031468) shall coordinate the same.

A line of acceptance shall be gratifying.

We look forward to welcoming you with your colleagues & family members.

Thanks & Regards

Mamta Jain
